Big Dog bunnies to race punters this Thursday night

GREYHOUNDS won't be the only racing this Thursday night at Albion Park as the Big Dog Bunnies return to Brisbane for the Group Three Big Dog Cup.

The Big Dog Bunnies are the glamorous support team for Big Dog Racing Supplements, who sponsor the $22,000 greyhound race.

Punters who turn up at the Albion Park track will be able to win prizes by racing the Big Dog Bunnies on an inflatable 'bungee run'.

We hear the girls have been training for the night and analysing video footage of Gladiators to pick up some tips.

Also to celebrate the running of the 600m greyhound race, the Club will also be running a losing ticket competition for punters to win a free $500 win bet on the Group Three Big Dog Cup.

To enter, punters need to put their name, email and telephone number on the back of any losing ticket and put it in the entry boxes.

The Big Dog Cup is one of the key race dates of the 2009 Sky Channel Winter Chasing Carnival, which is being named one of the best carnivals to date.

Brisbane Greyhound Racing Club general manager Luke Gatehouse said the Carnival had experience increased betting turnover and attendance.

"So far we have had the best greyhounds in Australia, and this has meant great crowds, and an increased interest in the racing," he said.

"It's such an entertaining and different night out and I encourage everyone to come out to Albion Park, which is only two minutes from the Valley, and experience first hand the action-packed nights we have on offer."

This Thursday's race night starts at 6.30pm, including free entry, and free parking at Albion Park.
